

Liselotte Engstam is an experienced Chair and Non-Executive Board Director with over 15 years of board service, following international CEO and executive roles in global tech, engineering, and services firms across Europe, the US, and India. She has served on the boards of nine publicly listed companies, seven private firms, and five non-profit or foundation organizations. She currently serves on the boards of Zalaris (public), Ografy/ESRI and Digoshen (private), and on the Global Governing Board of the Climate Governance Initiative, in partnership with the World Economic Forum. She also chairs the Nordic Chapter of Boards Impact Forum and is a board member of the INSEAD Sweden Alumni Association.

As founder and Chair of the ThinkTank Digoshen, she advances board education, research, and peer collaboration. She has researched and co-authored Leading a Board – Chairs’ Practices Across Europe, AI Leadership for Boards, and Dynamic Board Capabilities in collaboration with INSEAD, KTH, and Chalmers.

Engstam holds a Master’s in Engineering and Sustainability, is INSEAD board-certified (IDP-C), and a Fellow at the Salzburg Global Corporate Governance Forum. She is also affiliated with the European Corporate Governance Institute, Harvard’s Institute of Coaching, and INSEAD’s International Directors Network and INSEAD’s Mastering Change Global Club. Under the artist name Novisali, she explores sustainability, foresight, and connection through digital and AI-generated art.