

Liselotte Engstam is a Chair and Non-Executive Director with over 15 years of board experience across nine listed, seven private (including private equity-backed), and five non-profit organizations. Her earlier executive career spans global leadership roles within technology, engineering, and professional services across Europe, the US, and India.

She currently serves on the boards of Zalaris A/S (public), Ografy/ESRI (private), and Digoshen (private), chairs Boards Impact Forum (non-profit) in collaboration with World Economic Forum and the Climate Governance Initiative, and is a board member at INSEAD Alumni Association Sweden.

Founder of the Digoshen Think Tank, she advances board practices through academic research, education, podcasting, and peer learning. She is co-author of Leading a Board, AI Leadership for Boards, and Dynamic Board Capabilities, developed in collaboration with INSEAD, KTH, and Chalmers.

In addition to her board roles, she works as an Executive Coach, combining evidence-based methods with foresight and creative reflection to support resilient leadership.

As multimedia artist Novisali, she explores insight and transformation through digitally enhanced visual storytelling used in exhibitions and leadership settings.

She is board certified (IDP-C) by INSEAD, holds an MSc in Engineering, and is a Fellow of Harvard's Institute of Coaching and of Salzburg Global Governance Forum. She is a member of and contributes to European Corporate Governance Institute, INSEAD's International Directors Network and INSEAD's Mastering Change Global Club.
